

COOKIES POLICY

I. PURPOSE

The website www.masdenbruno.com (hereinafter, the “Website”) is owned by MAS D’EN BRUNO S.L. (hereinafter “MdB”).

This Cookies Policy is intended to inform you clearly and precisely about the cookies used on our Website.

II. WHAT ARE COOKIES?

Cookies are small files that are downloaded to your computer (computer, mobile phone or other device with online access) when you visit a certain web page, in order to store information related to the navigation carried out.

In general, cookies can be used for very diverse purposes, such as, for example, recognizing you as a user, obtaining information about your browsing habits, or customizing the way in which the content of the website is displayed.

The installation of cookies on your computer requires your prior consent, with the exception of technical cookies, which are exempt from said obligation since they are necessary for the proper functioning and navigation of our Website.

III. TYPES OF COOKIES AND WHICH ONES WE USE ON OUR WEBSITE

There are different types of cookies depending on the entity that manages them, the purpose for which the information obtained through them is used and the time they remain activated on your computer.

Below you will find an overview of the different types of cookies that are most frequently used, although our Website may not make use of all of them. For this reason, in the following section we will provide you with detailed information on which ones we use and their specific characteristics.

3.1. Types of cookies

Depending on the time they remain activated, cookies can be "session" (they are deleted once the user leaves the web page that generated them) or "persistent" (they remain on your device until a certain date).

Also, depending on the entity that manages them, there are "own" (those created and managed by the person responsible for the website, in this case, Mas d'en Bruno) or "third parties" (those managed by service providers outside Mas d'en Bruno).

According to its purpose we can distinguish between:

- Technical cookies: These are those that allow the user to navigate through the website, using the different options or services that exist on it. For example, they allow traffic and data communication to be controlled, session identification, remembering the elements that make up an order, requesting registration or participation in an event, etc.

For the installation of this type of cookies it is not necessary to obtain the user's consent, as it is a type of cookie that is exempt from said obligation.

- Personalization cookies: These are those that allow the user to remember information so that the user accesses the service with certain characteristics that can differentiate their experience from that of other users, such as, for example, the language, the sections marked as favorites, the appearance or content of the service depending on the type of browser through which the user accesses the service or the region from which he accesses the service, etc.

- Analysis cookies: These are those that allow the measurement of user activity on the website, in order to introduce improvements based on the analysis of the usage data made by users of the service. For example, they allow knowing the number of users who visit the website, as well as those parts of it that are most visited.

- Behavioral Advertising Cookies: These are those that store information on the behavior of users obtained through the continuous observation of their browsing habits, which allows them to offer personalized advertising based on them.

3.2. Cookies we use on our website

Our Website uses only technical cookies, for whose installation it is not necessary to obtain your consent.

IV. WAYS TO GRANT, REFUSE OR REVOKE CONSENT FOR THE USE OF COOKIES.

As indicated, for the installation of technical cookies it is not necessary to obtain your consent.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, we inform you that you can block, disable or delete cookies at any time using the tools provided by your browser, although as they are technical cookies this could cause the website to not function properly.
